THE TWO COUNTY TICKETS.

If the merits of the men composing the two tickets in Utah county go for anything, there will be little difficulty in electing the democratic by a very handsome majority. If fate had detergreat activity, great endurance, iron too late even to hint at it. nerve and a quick, alert and tireless physique. Besides that he needs to be a man of excellent and accurate business habits. In this the re- the republican ticket for the constituof a compromise between the two irdistant. Send Karl G. compromise above alluded to. Saxey Maeser in his place. That's the thing had it all his own way, but was outgeneraled badly by Jones in the final Noble Warrum Jr. throws down out-come. The democrats can go on the editorial faber in the Logan Journthe theory that there is no good taste al office to assume the office of probate

Indeed it is very vivid and it is of that nature as that it will make votes on the side of democracy on election day, that the democrats of Utah county are however, it assails him in its accusnot only equal to the occasion, but are tomed rude and ungen lemanly way. as well in deal earnest. They mean The chief justice can afford it. business. They are in dead earnest and mean to carry the county by a majority which will be wilder their riven, torn and warring foes. Contrast this cause he has done all he can do, or any business. They are in dead earnest ondition with the closed front, and erried ranks and thorough unity of the democrate, and then read their fate in luminous letters next November.

No, gentle republicans, we do not intend to trust the interests of Utah county to you next term. Nor do we propose to send your twelve to help propose to send your twelve to the final result to come to us the content of the final result to come to us the notice is hereby given by the undersigned administrating by the undersigned an evidence that they have gotten well along with the lesson. From the first name on it to the last the selections are as good as they could possibly be. The delegates to the constitutional convention are among on brightest and best men. Leaders among the people, having their confidence o the last de gree, men of ability, integrity and virtue, knowing the needs of Utah and completely capable of making a constitution which will guard her every interest, push her forward and win respect from her sister states. Such men se Thurman, Wm. Creer, Karl G. Masser, Edward Partridge and Corfman may be safely trusted with the work of the public, because they are capable, no less trustworthy. The fact is there is not a weak man on the convention ticket. Let no man doubt but his ticket will be elected.

Take our nominees for selectmen, Bullock, Reynolds and Peery, where could there be found three men more perfectly adapted to the work?

After Vernee Halliday there is no man in the county with so many qualifications for county clera as Ed. Jones. Here again the conventionidid well, and Thomas of Spanish Fork for re corder is a strong man. We are loth to leg Lund go, but Hall, we all know him, and he wi'l not only vastly strengthen the ticket, but will make an honest, capable and pains-taking officer. We know the Enquirer does not like our old friend Openshaw, but we fear it will have to endure him for two years longer. John directed by the District Court of the Brown, what shall we say of him? His First Judicial District of the Territory record is as pure as the driven snow. A man true and tried in all the relations of life. No county can have a better sheriff Gash, another pet of the Engager's cat there and by actions of the Engager's cat there are the front door of the county county of the following described real triangles of the county of the count Hyrum Lemmon, Payson,

What a contrast to the re-James O. Bullock, Pleasant Grove, thunder. What a contrast to the republican ticket!

THE poor old Trib, in its blind rage strikes out indiscriminately, careless as to whether it hits Merritt, Rawlins, Powers or the democratic press. All come in for a share of its venom, impotent but exceedingly offensive venom. It is playing the role of a charming but badly spoiled little miss who having had things her own way all her previous life, is suddenly hauled up and forced into some sort of disripline Her petulence and resentment becomes well-nigh unbearable, and in the theory that there is no good taste in Saxey's mouth, nor will there be for a single moment during this campaign.

New Saxey is not without his strength and it will not be exerted for as deadly an enemy as Jones or any of Jones' followers.

The fact is this republicant ticket served as an object lesson to the demontance from committing the same error. The load clamor, the hungry desire to feed at the public crib had no sway. The county democratic convention was on the hunt for the best men in tast of found them. These are its mominees. Strong men. Strong by reason of their ability, their fitness, their popula ity, adaptability for the work given them to do. The contrast is a very strong one. Indeed it is very vivid and it is of that
